Dear Secretary Clinton:

On behalf of the people and authorities of the Nagorno Karabakh Republic, Artsakh, I am writing to congratulate you and the American people in connection with the United States' Independence Day.

Since the day of proclamation, the United States has championed the universal values of freedom and democracy, which has motivated other freedom-loving nations, including Artsakh, to struggle selflessly for achieving a long-cherished liberty.

We highly appreciate the US efforts within the OSCE Minsk Group to establishing a positive peace and stability in the South Caucasus by reaching a fair and durable solution to the Nagorno Karabakh conflict with Azerbaijan.

Also, Artsakh is grateful to the American nation for the ongoing humanitarian assistance, which has helped to rebuild our lives and restore the republic's war-devastated infrastructure.

As we continue developing as an independent democracy, Nagorno Karabakh remains determined to promote our shared vision of a safer world, a peaceful and democratic Caucasus.

Once again, I congratulate your nation with the holiday of freedom and independence, and wish the American nation peace and prosperity.

Sincerely,

Georgy PETROSSIAN

Dear Ms. Kaidanow:

On behalf of the people and authorities of the Nagorno Karabakh Republic, Artsakh, I am writing to congratulate you and the American people in connection with the United States' Independence Day.

Since the day of proclamation, the United States has championed the universal values of freedom and democracy, which has motivated other freedom-loving nations, including Artsakh, to struggle selflessly for achieving a long-cherished liberty.

We highly appreciate the US efforts within the OSCE Minsk Group to establishing a positive peace and stability in the South Caucasus by reaching a fair and durable solution to the Nagorno Karabakh conflict with Azerbaijan.

Also, Artsakh is grateful to the American nation for the ongoing humanitarian assistance, which has helped to rebuild our lives and restore the republic's war-devastated infrastructure.

As we continue developing as an independent democracy, Nagorno Karabakh remains determined to promote our shared vision of a safer world, a peaceful and democratic Caucasus.

Once again, I congratulate your nation with the holiday of freedom and independence, and wish the American nation peace and prosperity.

Sincerely,

Georgy PETROSSIAN
